Headteacher: Mrs L Crossley

22nd April 2010

Dear Parents

I hope you all had a great Easter break and are all ready for the busy term ahead.

I wanted to let you all know a couple of pieces of school news. Firstly, Sarah Wanless has had a baby boy; Aidan, 7lb 1, who arrived on 8th April, both mother and baby are doing well.

Secondly, on a similar thread, Mrs Crossley has just given me the fantastic news that she is pregnant, the things some Headteachers do to increase their numbers! Mrs Crossley is intending to work until late September, and she has assured me that she fully intends to return to school afterwards. What this means to St Ives is that an Acting Headteacher will be appointed to take on Mrs Crossley's responsibilities in her absence. Therefore, the governing body will liaise with the local authority over the next half term to agree on a suitable appointment and as things develop I will keep you all informed.

I am sure you will all join with me and the governors in offering your congratulations and hope that she has an easy few months!

Kind regards

Nick Musselwhite
